5 Stages to Succession and Exit Planning So You Can Enjoy the Benefits of Your Life's Work

Most people go into business to build value for their future yet more than half do not develop a strategic plan for extracting the value they are building and more tragically 40% will exit their business because of circumstances outside their control. Christine helps business founders Identify, Protect and Maximise their business value so they can make the most of their life's work and have the retirement they deserve – whichever way they want to exit their business.

Christine Nicholson

Christine has started several of her own successful businesses (0 - £4.5m in 15 months), as well as business ventures for others (bankruptcy to 8-figure exit in 18 months). She saves them THOUSANDS and increases the value of their businesses by MILLIONS. She has walked in the shoes of being a founder and been both a business buyer and a seller, generating hundreds of millions in crystallised value in business exits. Returning to the UK in 2010, after a few years accidentally running a zoo in the Middle East, Christine brings over 25 years of wisdom, know-how and experience of working with SME's, freeing business owner from the tyranny of long hours to working smarter not harder. Christine is the author of 4 critically acclaimed business books - 5 Minute Finance, What's Your Profit Score (which has been described as "the most useful business book of the year"), How to BUILD a Unicorn and Enjoy It. She is currently writing the next two books.
