Andy Lewis MBE, Paralympian - The Story So Far

Gold medal winning Paralympian Andy Lewis MBE formed Bespoke Mentoring as a result of the lessons he learned in competitive sports and being the best that he can. Andy now helps people from all walks of life, young and old to understand their potential. With a proven track record as a Gold Medal winning Paralympian, many testimonials and a measured impact. Andy doesn't do things by half measures. if he puts his name to it, results will come.

Andy Lewis MBE

Written off by his teachers Andy left school in 1999 to join the Army, a dream that was dashed after his motorcycle crashed with a 38 tonne lorry. His right leg was severely damaged and after living with the pain for six years he made the difficult decision to have it amputated. There started a long journey living with anxiety & depression, overcoming many challenges and eventually winning a Gold medal at 2016 Rio Olympics and an MBE to recognise his achievements.
