#BI21.3 CSR Forum

Social responsibility in business has never been more in the spotlight than at present. Covid19 has caused havoc across society and the business community has a pivotal role as employers, commercial drivers and influencers. Charities and the third sector are businesses themselves and have been no less affected. How are charities and the Third Sector surviving? How do they see the future and in a time when revenues are limited for everyone, what does survival involve? Our CSR Forum will take a look at an overview of the sector, how things are looking for 2021 and what we need to do as a business community to support the wider society's needs.

Barrie Wyatt

Barrie has an extensive business background in the public sector and worked at a senior level with organisations such as BP, IBM and Vodafone to create the first professional body for cyber security (the Institute of Information Security Professionals). For the past eight years he has been supporting charities.

Barrie has been Chair of Trustees at GAVCA for five years, and is a trustee of GRCC. Steve is a licensed mentor of the Trusted Charity quality standard and a qualified NLP Practitioner.
